Administrative Controls Management, Inc. (ACM) is pleased to announce that its Senior Vice President, Jim Krebs, PE, CCP, PMP, FAACE, was presented with the O.T. Zimmerman Founder's Award for his service to AACE International through continuous active participation.

The O.T. Zimmerman Founder's Award recognizes exemplary current service and contribution to the Association for ten (10) years or more. It is awarded to a member who has been instrumental in the development of policies, practices, procedures, and products directed to the advancement of the precepts of total cost management and AACE International.

Jim has been a member of AACE since 1986 and has served the organization in many different capacities including Claims & Dispute Resolution Technical Sub-Committee and Ethics Committee member; Vice President of Administration (2015-2017); Director of Region 4 (2008-2010); and President, Vice President, and Board Member for the Great Lakes Section (1995 – 2011). He is also a Fellow, and the 2012 recipient of the Charles V. Keane Distinguished Service Award.

AACE International is a non-profit international association with over 9,000 members in 100 countries worldwide. AACE has been serving the total cost management community since 1956. <http://www.aacei.org>
