

AAACE Election Results Announced

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:
August 7, 2020

ACM is pleased to announce that Senior Vice President and Co-Owner, James E. Krebs, PE, CCP, PMP, FAACE, has been elected President-Elect for AAACE International, the Association of the Advancement of Cost Engineering; a 7,000-member nonprofit Association serving the total cost management community since 1956. This three-year commitment is a continuance of Jim’s service to the Association, having been an active member of AAACE International since 1986, earning the Charles V. Keane Distinguished Service Award, named as a Fellow, and in 2019 was presented with the O.T. Zimmerman Founder’s Award. He has also served on the Association’s Board of Directors as the Director of Region 4, and the Vice President of Administration.

Jim has over 34 years of project management, project controls, and construction experience including planning, scheduling, estimating, cost controls, field supervision, administrative, and claims analysis and testimony services within the heavy construction, nuclear, utility, manufacturing, petrochemical, and automotive industries.
